

Course in Permanent Makeup

Day One:

Golden Rule>> Never do anything on a client that exceeds your Training Level.

Introductions Brief History of Permanent Cosmetics

Discussion of what the goals of each Student are

Legal Issues Expectation of the client

Malpractice Insurance

Discussion and Examples given of Consent Forms, after care forms, Cod sore Release Forms, and others Camera Techniques to take great shots

Sterilization

Cleaning

Environmental Control & Housekeeping

Protective Equipment

Equipment, Pigment and Supplies

Infection Control Pre Procedure Instruction

Allergic Reaction

Things That Can Go Wrong

Procedure Room Preparation

How to Meet and greet the client, conduct a consultation, explain the procedures through, before and after pictures, answer all questions and prepare the client for the procedure.

After care Instructions

Anesthetics brands how to use

Put your machine together

Demonstration of Technique

Eyebrow Morphology

How to get a good result when using your machine

Students practice on practice skins creating eyebrow shapes, eyeliner, and lip lines

Students should be competent, and comfortable to create eyebrow, eyeliner and lip lines on Lambskin by the end of day

Day Two:

Live demonstration of an eyebrow procedure will be performed by the instructor. Student will go over the area to see what it feels like.

Meet and greet the client

Conduct a consultation, what are the client's expectations

Explain the procedure through before and after pictures

Answer all questions

See if the client wants the procedure performed at that time

Give client consent form and have them fill it out

Take Before Picture

Apply anesthetic

Student will perform and eyebrow procedure on Model

Take after picture

Explain after care to client

Student will perform as many brow procedures as time will allow. Instructor will critique the students work, performance, and answer any questions.

Day Three:

Live demonstration by Instructor of an Eyeliner, or eyelash Enhancement procedure. Heavier liner for a paid advance student class.

Student to perform same on Model. The as many as they can as time allows. Instructor will critique the students work

Day Four:

Live demo by instructor of a Lip procedure on a Model

Student performs on Model As many as time allows. Then on to critique by Instructor.

Day Five:

Students will be given a quiz to test them on the knowledge they have learned and trained over the last for days. They will perform, under the supervision of the Instructor, more procedures on Models, or same model!

Class taps up with discussion and questions

Discussion of the Board Certification, and the American Academy of Micro-pigmentation, and the Permanent Cosmetic Conferences and continuing Education they offer.

The Student, after passing all practical, oral and written task, will receive a Certificate stating that they have passed the qualifications in the five day course to become a Micro-pigmentation Technician.